

Third Grade Assembly

NOVEMBER 21, 2017

3rd Grade Learning

Reading

In reading, students are part of several fractured fairy tale reader's theater groups: The Principal's New Clothes, The Stinky Cheese Man, Bigfoot Cinderella, and Sleeping Ugly. Reader's theater is a great way to work on reading fluency and expression.

Math

Students are reviewing multi digit addition and subtraction strategies. They will be working on multiplication strategies after break.

Writing/Spelling/Cursive

In writing, we are publishing our second personal narrative and our opinion writing about turkeys. We are working on words with short i, o, and u.. In cursive, we learned i and j.

Science

We are exploring food chains and webs. Students will be creating food chain posters to show their learning.
