Ms. Eldridge's Third Grade
Room 172 Campers
11/30/18

Writing- Students published their poems by typing them on the computer. Next week, we will resume our narrative writing.

Reading- Students worked on writing more detailed summaries of their mystery chapters using text evidence to support their answers.

Spelling- Our next word study focuses on suffixes with -er and -est. We will learn how to use these words to compare.

Science- Next week, we will explore mystery pellets and make scientific observations.

Math- Students reviewed bar graphs, created pictographs and used these types of graphs to answer questions.

Cursive- We learned cursive k and r this week.
